Bus (Truck) Drop Off & Parking:

Your buses will drop off directly in front of the PAC. After students have unloaded, your buses will move to the parking area in front lot closest to Wilson Rd. (see map). Your students will enter the PAC through the lobby in the front of building. Percussion students may walk around the building to the south side when your equipment truck is ready to unload. Band students must wait in the lobby or enter the hall to listen to bands until called to move to warm-up. Equipment trucks will unload/load in the area designated on the map. Trucks must park with the buses once unloaded.

***Instrument Cases:

Absolutely all Instrument Cases stay on Buses or Truck. There will be no storage area for instrument cases in the Performing Arts Center.

Event Office:

Upon arrival, Please report to the event office. You must submit 3 sets of original scores, 4 copies of your seating chart, and one announcer script.

(You may fax your seating chart and announcer script now at 956.427.3572)

Warm-Up Room: (Gold Room)

Your Warm-up time begins when the monitor says “You may enter the room for warm-up...” Time does not start when you play your 1st note. We will provide a metronome. Please bring your own tuner(s) and other technology.

Stage Equipment Available:

The following equipment will be available on stage upon request (aside from chairs/stands): Director Podium, Director Stand, Upright Acoustic Piano, Grand Piano, 2 medium Risers, 2 large Risers.

Please bring all Percussion/Equipment not provided by HCISD.

Sight-Reading Equipment Available:

Immediately after your concert performance, you will move to the Blue Room for Sight-Reading. Your set-up will be done in anticipation of your arrival. The following will be provided: Director Podium, Director Stand, Bass Drum, Timpani, Bells.
